

Job Title: Outreach Event Representative

Organization: Next Step Living

Location: Boston, MA

Next Step Living is a groundbreaking company on a mission to make it easy and affordable for homeowners to implement energy-saving solutions. We partner with over 400 municipalities, civic organizations, businesses and nonprofits to deliver energy-efficient and environmentally friendly solutions to New England homes. Our work is practical; we install insulation, put solar panels on roofs, and help people move away from expensive oil-based heating. Next Step Living is headquartered in Boston, with a growing Connecticut presence centered around our New Haven office. So far, we've worked with over 80,000 homeowners who are now saving money and reducing their impact on the planet. For more information about Next Step Living please click here.

Job Responsibilities:

- This is a unique part-time opportunity to educate homeowners about reducing their carbon footprint and lowering their utility bills. Use your communication skills and passion for the environment to motivate homeowners to move to action!
- This is a part-time position, and there is great opportunity for growth into a full-time position with Next Step Living. Next Step Living provides training and ongoing coaching to help you succeed and grow in the role, and Outreach Event Reps generally earn $12-$20 per hour.
- You'll act as the first point of contact between prospective customers and Next Step Living by engaging people in conversations at a variety of events.
- We regularly attend farmer's markets, town fairs, home shows, festivals and many other community events. You'll be working at events near where you live - we attend events throughout all of Eastern and Central Massachusetts- so you'll be making a direct impact on your community.

Job Requirements:

- Interest or prior experience with community organizing and activism
- Strong conversational skills - the ability to communicate clearly, professionally and positively
- Flexibility in changing environments and the ability to solve problems creatively
- Ability to learn quickly and embrace feedback
- Ability to speak, read, and write languages other than English is beneficial
- Able to work independently in the field - personal maturity and responsibility are key
- Flexible weekday and weekend availability - must be available to work a minimum of three days per week, 20 hours per week, including at least one weekend day
- Must be able to pass a criminal background check and drug screen upon hire
