Organization: Sears Home Services

For over three generations, it's the brand your family has trusted. Sears provides expert technicians and service you can depend on. From repairing your fridge to renovating your kitchen, we're here to help you keep your home up and running.

Service - it's one way that we distinguish ourselves from other retailers. With over 8,600 service technicians making more than 11 million service calls annually, this business delivers a broad range of retail-related residential and commercial services in all 50 states and Puerto Rico under the Sears Parts & Repair Services and A&E Factory Service brand names. Commercial and residential customers can obtain parts and repair services for all major brands of products such as home appliances, lawn and garden equipment, home electronics, floor-care products, and heating and cooling systems. Smaller items for repair can be brought into Sears Parts & Repair Centers located throughout the United States or to any Sears Full-line Store. Customers can also purchase service contracts, product protection agreements, product installation services and Kenmore residential heating and cooling systems.
